

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The 2022 Midwest Conference on the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning [SoTL]

Friday, April 1, 2022, 9 am – 4 pm in person at Indiana University South Bend

Keynote: Susan D. Blum, editor and author of Ungrading: Why Rating Students Undermines Learning (and What to Do Instead)

Theme: Authentic and Joyous Learning

DEADLINE for PROPOSALS: Tuesday, February 1, 2022 by 5:00 pm EST

We are accepting proposals that describe empirical studies of SoTL, theoretical discussions of SoTL, and descriptions of best practice of teaching.

Submissions may be for one of the following formats. All sessions are 30 minutes long.

- Concurrent sessions: Presentation + discussion
- Panel sessions: Several discussants on a single topic
- Posters: Poster on empirical work or best practice

Preference will be given to proposals that are focused on the conference theme and are generalizable to many teaching situations. There will be a later call for 5-minute Quick Hits and Twitter conference presentations.

To submit a proposal, provide the following:

- Title: 10 words maximum (for conference program)
- Short abstract: 60 words maximum (for conference program)
- Preferred presentation format: Concurrent Session, Panel Session, Poster. Please indicate whether you are flexible— willing to change format if asked.
- Description: 800-2000 words (References not included in word count)
 - What are your goals for the session?
 - Overview of the content
 - Scholarly references (minimum of three)
- Presenter information for each presenter.
 - Name
 - Institution or Affiliation
 - Position/Title
 - Phone # and Email Address
- All proposals must be submitted electronically via the SoTL Proposal site by 5 pm on Tuesday, February 1, 2022.
 - Submit your proposal via the form at <https://midwestsotl.iu.edu/CFP>
 - A confirmation receipt of your proposal submission will go to your email. You will be notified of the outcome of the blind peer review by the end of February.
